

Coal India, IL&FS IDC to form JV for projects
(The Economic Times, Tuesday, 19 February, 2008)

State-owned Coal India and IL&FS Infrastructure Development Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of IL&FS, on Tuesday entered into a memorandum of agreement to float a joint venture company for development of mines, power and coal-based projects. The JV would have 50 per cent equity contribution each by the two companies

Read the complete article in The Economic Times at the following link

Coal India, IL&FS IDC to form JV for projects